South-Carolina GAZETTE.
May 11th, 1752. [NUMB. 937.]

LONDON, February 15.

THERE is a bill prepared to be brought into parliament this ſeſſion, for putting all the different bank annuities of three and an half per cent. firſt ſubſcription, into one fund, and the ſecond into another; and, likewiſe, all the three per cent's into one fund. And as ſoon as the five years and ſeven years are expired of the three and an half, they will all be made into one fund, with the other 3 per cent's.

His majeſty's ſhip the Sphynx, Capt. Wheeler; the Aſſiſtance, Capt. Buckle; and St. Albans, Capt. Biron, who ſail'd ſome time ago from Plymouth, are arrived at Madera. It is reported they are bound to the coaſt of Guiney to obſerve the motions of the French.

His majeſty's ſhip Tyger has been in the Dock, and is fitting out for the Sea: She and the Invincible being ſhortly to ſail with two regiments of ſoldiers, to relieve two other regiments at Gibraltar and Port Mahone.

London, Feb. 18. One great Argument to enforce the putting our MILITIA on ſome foot, by which they may be made uſeful, is their being the proper Force of a FREE PEOPLE, the natural Guardians of our LAWS and PROPERTIES, the genuine Defence of our ISLAND againſt all INVADERS, and the only MILITARY of whole Affection we can never doubt, and of whoſe Strength we can never be afraid.

The Relaxation of Government in this Metropolis appears in nothing ſo clearly, and is felt in nothing ſo heavily, as in the Multitude of POOR, with which we are oppreſſed, and the vaſt ſums raiſed for their Relief, without relieving them. One probable Cauſe of this may be the vigilant Exerciſe of Authority in other parts of the Kingdom, which, of courſe, to avoid whipping, drives the Wicked, the Indigent, and the Idle hither.

Feb. 20. By the Swallow, Capt. Bell, which arrived on ſaturday laſt, the Eaſt India company have an account, that Mr. Robbins, the famous enginier, and his deputy, who went to India, in their ſervice, are both dead.

By the above ſhip there is advice, that M. Dupleix, governor general of the French ſettlements in India, had laid a pretty high duty on all goods in the places, on the coaſt of Coromandel, where the French have any power and influence, with a view, as is preſumed, to diſtreſs the Engliſh company: That the report that the new Nabob of Golconda had been killed ſoon after his elevation to that dignity, was an idle ſtory; that the French had 800 regular troops more in the field than when they defeated the old Nabob, and were making diſpoſitions to ſecure and fortify the places ceded to them by the new Nabob; that they reckoned to have fifteen ſhips of the line of battle at Pondicherry, and their other forts in India before the middle of next Summer; and that the French king is ſo well ſatisfied with the conduct of M. Dupleix, that he had ſent him one of the grand croſſes of the order of St. Lewis.

In a few days ſeveral men of war will be put into commiſſion, to relieve the ſeveral guard-ſhips ſtationed in the Weſt-Indies.

The right hon. the lords of the admiralty have been pleaſed to order the hon. Commodore Edgcumbe, to ſail in the Deptford man of war to Algiers, to relieve Commodore Keppel.

Several workmen ſet out this week for Cornwall, in order to work in two light-houſes, going to be erected at the Lizard Point.

It is ſaid that the government has contracted for a very large wood, in the kingdom of Ireland, conſiſting chiefly of fine large Oak trees, to be uſed in the navy.

Feb. 22. We hear that ſeveral worthy patriots intend to club their wits; during the receſs of P———, towards drawing up a ſcheme for preventing all kinds of r—bb—rs of a public nature, without which, they think, the work now on the anvil will be incomplete; and that, among other things which call for redreſs, they will labour hard to ſuppreſs the ſcandalous practice that has ſo long obtained in moſt public offices of extorting money for doing duties which they are already well paid for —A noble deſign indeed! But where ſhall we find a Hercules to cleanſe the Augean ſtable?—Men may ſtrain their lungs, and wear out their pens to the ſtumps, and all in vain; for where intemperance and irreligion, idleneſs and immorality prevail, all arguments are loſt, unleſs enforced by ſome ſignal demonſtrations of the wrath of heaven.

Wedneſday a ſtolen aſs was recovered by a ſearch warrant, and produced before Juſtice Fielding; when Joſeph Wood, a very old man and the maſter of the aſs ſwore as follows.

Sir, this is my aſs, I ſhould know him among all the aſſes in the world, and he would know me; wouldſt not thou, poor Duke? Sir, we have lived together theſe many years, ay, that we have, as a man and wife, as a man may ſay; For, Sir, I love my aſs as my wife: The beſt 20 horſes in the world, no, nor a king's ranſom to boot, ſhould not buy my poor Aſs. Poor Duke! Thou haſt had many an empty Meal ſince I ſaw thee, and ſo has thy maſter too for want of thee. For, Sir, I do not love him without reaſon poor thing! he has got me many a good meal's meat, and many a good one he will get me, I hope. Poor Duke! We ſhall never part more, I hope, whilſt I live.—— Then follow'd a ſcene of tenderneſs between the man and the aſs; in which it was difficult to ſay, whether the beaſt or its maſter, gave tokens of the higher affection.

CHARLES-TOWN, May 11.

From Boſton we have advice, that Capt. Winſlow in a ſhip from and from thence for this port, which ſail'd the 18th of March laſt, was put aſhore and bilged on Race-Point, in a violent ſnow-ſtorm that happened on the 20th: That the Small Pox rages there with great violence: And that M. de la Jonquiere (reputed an experienced ſea officer, and who was an admiral commanding the French fleet taken by lord Anſon and Sir Peter Warren in 1747, when he remained ſome time a priſoner in England) late intendant-general of New-France, died lately at Quebeck.

From New-York, That the ſloop Sybil, Capt. John Scott Lawrence, of that port, was taken, in her paſſage from Spaniſh Town hither, by the Spaniards, and carried into St. Domingo: And that the ſmall pox is ſpreading there alſo

And from Africa, that there are a great number of French men of war on the coaſts of that continent: And that they are erecting floating factories and forts in ſeveral parts where we formerly had the greateſt trade.—Capt. Boſtock, who arrived a few days ago, ſaw 3 French ſhips of 74, 50, and 18 Guns, on the windward coaſt.

On tueſday night a fire broke out (by what accident we are not yet inform'd) on board a fine large ſhip at Buchanan's wharf, called the Bennet Galley, Capt. John Wadham maſter, laden with rice, pitch, tar, turpentine, logwood, ſarſaparilla, &c. and juſt ready to ſail for Cowes, by which the ſaid ſhip, cargo, and every thing that belonged to her, was entirely conſumed, notwithſtanding all the aſſiſtance that was given after ſhe was cut away from the wharf to prevent her firing other veſſels that lay near her. — We are inform'd the ſhip belonged chiefly to the unfortunate captain, to whom a great part of the cargo alſo belonged.

Laſt Monday Night died, much lamented, after a lingering Indiſpoſition, the Wife of John Lloyd, Eſq; Commander of Fort-Johnſon.
